PASS THE CHILL PILL

Take a turn. Lose your composure.

2-6 PLAYERS

30-SECOND TURNS

FIRST TO 5 POINTS

Rules + 36 cut-out challenge cards + score sheet

All you need: one phone timer, the cards, and your Chill Pill or any small token.

KEEP IT TOGETHER.

A tiny pill. A ridiculous role. Thirty seconds of serious nonsense.

2-6 PLAYERS

AGES 16+

PAPER PLAY: NO NFC NEEDED

SET UP

Cut out pages 3-6, shuffle the 36 cards, and place them face down. Write player names on page 7. Set a phone timer to 30 seconds. Give the Chill Pill, or any small token, to the first player.

DRAW + READ

1

The player holding the pill draws a card and reads it aloud. Take a few seconds to get into character.

START THE TIMER

2

Perform the challenge for the full 30 seconds. Keep talking or stay in character until the timer ends.

LET THEM INTERRUPT

3

Each other player may ask one silly question, one at a time. The card includes a suggested question. Keep interruptions verbal and about the fictional scene.

SCORE + PASS

4

Finish without laughing: 1 point. An audible giggle, chuckle or laugh: 0 points. Smiling is allowed. Discard the card and pass the pill clockwise.

WINNING + HOUSEKEEPING

First to 5 points triggers the final round: finish that round so everyone has had the same number of turns. Highest score wins. If tied, only tied players take one extra turn each; repeat until one leads. You may pass any challenge for 0 points. If the deck runs out, reshuffle the discards.

OPTIONAL NFC EDITION

A future web version can reveal random challenges, run the timer, and track scores when you tap the pill. The tag would open that page. This printable game works now with paper cards and a phone timer.

CUT. SHUFFLE. TRY NOT TO LAUGH.

Cut along the card borders. The player performs; everyone else may ask a silly question.
